Your privacy

Christian Super is seeking to collect personal information from you so that we may record your binding death nominations. The personal information we are seeking to collect from you is your name, address, date of birth, contact details, your beneficiaries and their relationship to you.

• I understand that this binding death benefit nomination form is only valid if:

- the beneficiary/ies listed on this form are my spouse, child, dependant or legal representative, as stated in the definitions.
- it is signed by me in the presence of two witnesses who are 18 years of age or older and not listed as a beneficiary on this form
- my two witnesses and I sign and date this form at the same time; and
- my benefit nomination percentages total 100%.

• I understand that:

- this binding death nomination is effective for three years from the date on which it is signed
- it must be received by Christian Super before my death
- my beneficiary/ies and I will be bound by the provisions of the Trust Deed

- I can cancel or update a binding death benefit nomination at any time by completing a new binding death benefit nomination form
- Christian Super accepts no responsibility for an incorrect nomination or completion of this form.
- I have read the information about privacy on the Christian Super website christiansuper.com.au and the associated reference material available at christiansuper.com.au and I understand how my personal information might be used.

Privacy declarations

- I have read and understood the Christian Super Privacy Policy
- I understand that it is my responsibility to inform my beneficiaries that I have provided their personal information to Christian Super and refer them to the Christian Super privacy policy at christiansuper.com.au

Footnotes

1. Dependant includes your spouse (including de-facto), child, adopted or anyone in an interdependency relationship with you.
2. This nomination must be signed by two witnesses over the age of 18, who are not listed as beneficiaries.
