About Christian Super

Christian Super provides superannuation (super), investment, insurance and pension services to individuals. The Fund offers eight investment options, including a licensed MySuper product (My Ethical Super). Our My Ethical Super dashboard is available on our website.

Once you are a Christian Super member, you can have your super paid into the Fund, even if you leave your current employer and start work for a new employer or if you are self employed. You can also roll over any other super you have into Christian Super, so you can save on duplicate fees and have all of your super in the one account, making it easier to manage.

The Fund is governed by a Trustee Board comprising four employer nominated directors, four member elected directors and one independent director. Governance details and disclosures required by super legislation, including remuneration details, can be found on our website.

The Fund operates only to benefit its members, providing high quality services and only charging fees to cover these costs. Christian Super does not pay any commissions to financial advisers.

Christian Super aims to invest in accordance with biblical principles, consistent with our Statement of Faith, to ensure that member funds are managed responsibly while growing for your future needs.

To this purpose we make investments that care for people and God's creation, who demonstrate sound ethical practices and meet performance standards in their social, environmental and financial stewardship.

Accordingly we avoid investments in companies and industries that engage in producing goods or services that have addictive or harmful effects on people (e.g. illicit drugs, gambling, tobacco, pornography); engage in activities that are excessively harmful to the environment; or practices that are predatory or exploitative or which abuse human freedom or dignity.

How super works

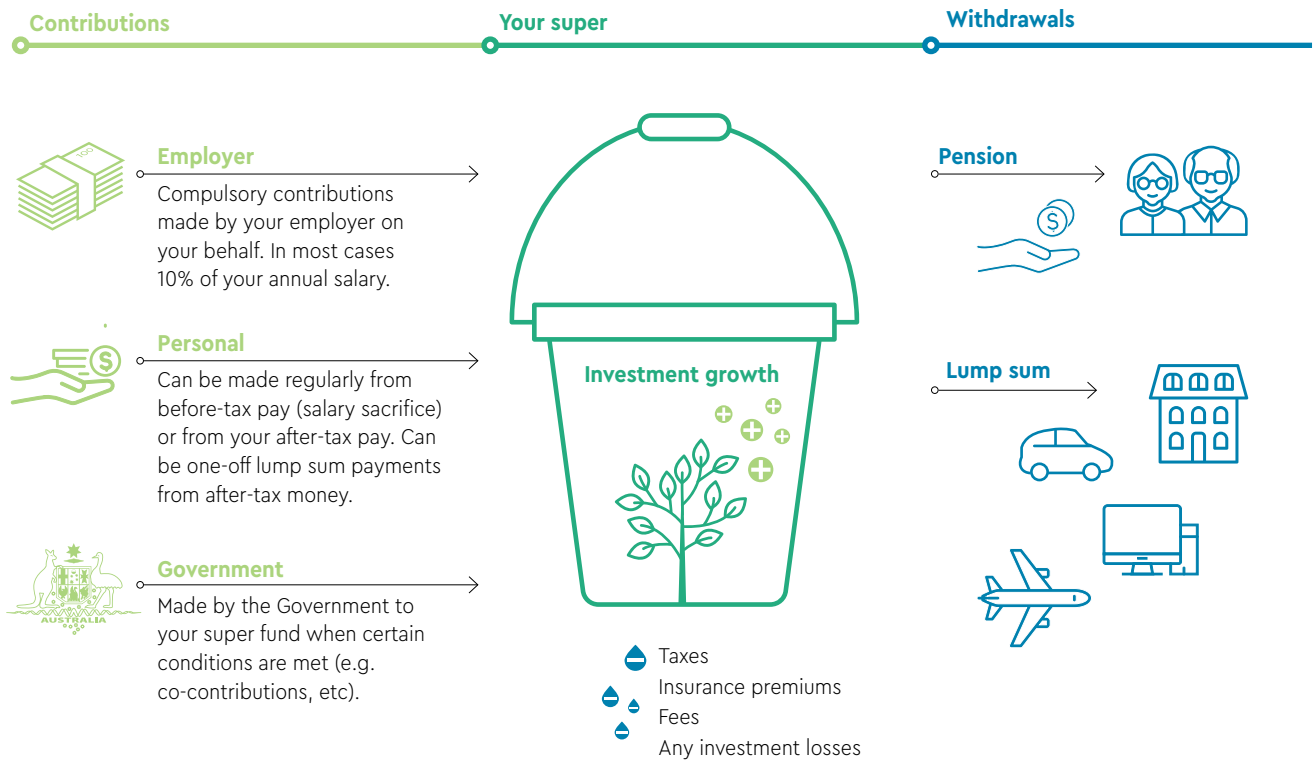

Superannuation is an important part of employment benefits. Super is, in part, a compulsory means to save for your retirement. The Government offers tax incentives to make super an attractive way to save for your retirement. Most people have a right to choose into which fund their employer should direct their Super Guarantee (SG) contributions.

The way your super account works is simple to understand. Christian Super offers an accumulation style benefit where contributions go into an account in your name, and where investment earnings (which can be positive or negative) are allocated to your super account, based on the investment performance of your investment options. Insurance premiums, fees and taxes are deducted from your account and then generally once you reach retirement you can choose how you would like to access your final balance.

There are annual limits on how much you can contribute to your super. While some exemptions exist, generally you cannot access your superannuation benefit until you reach a government stipulated retirement age.

i You should read the important information below about how super works before making a decision. For further information please see our website. The Australian Securities and Investments Commission (ASIC) MoneySmart website also contains further information on how super works.

The material relating to how superannuation works may change between the time when you read this statement and the day when you sign the application form.

We also offer other financial management products and services for a wide range of super and retirement related matters. In addition, there are a number of options for more comprehensive advice services.

Our ethical investment approach

We avoid investing your money in companies that violate human rights.

We avoid supporting industries that use exploitation or predatory practices.

We avoid industries that produce addictive or harmful goods and services.

We choose to invest in companies that are environmentally responsible, socially beneficial and financially strong.

We choose to invest in companies that are ethical, honest, professional and accountable.

Risks of super

All investments carry some risk. Different investment strategies may carry different levels of risk depending on the assets that make up the investment strategy. Investing in assets with potentially the highest long-term returns may also carry the highest level of short-term risk.

Super funds invest in a range of asset classes (e.g. cash, bonds, property and shares) that have different levels of risk. Funds also offer a variety of investment options, made up of different combinations of these asset classes.

Christian Super's default My Ethical Super product is a growth product invested in ethically responsible investments. As a growth product there is higher likelihood of strong long term returns while also having a greater degree of short term investment risk and volatility in returns compared to a balanced investment option due to the greater allocation to growth assets.

When considering your investment in Christian Super, it is important that you consider that:

- the performance of investment options will vary
- the level of returns for each investment option will vary and future returns may differ from past returns
- target investment returns are not guaranteed and you may lose some of the money you have invested
- superannuation laws may change in the future
- the amount of your future superannuation savings (including contributions and returns) may not be enough to provide adequately for your retirement needs; and
- the level of investment risk may vary depending on a range of factors such as age, investment time frames, where other parts of your wealth is invested and your risk tolerance.

i You should read the important information about investment choice in the Christian Super Investment Guide before making a decision. A summary of how we invest your money in other investment options is also available in this guide, which is available on our website¹.

The material relating to Christian Super's investment options may change between the time when you read this statement and the day you acquire the product.

Fees and costs

Did you know? Small differences in both investment performance and fees and costs can have a substantial impact on your long term returns.

For example, total annual fees and costs of 2% of your account balance rather than 1% could reduce your final return by up to 20% over a 30 year period (e.g. reduce it from $100,000 to $80,000).

You should consider whether features such as superior investment performance or the provision of better member services justify higher fees and costs.

You or your employer, as applicable, may be able to negotiate to pay lower fees. Ask the Fund or your financial adviser.

To find out more if you would like to find out more, or see the impact of the fees based on your own circumstances, the ASIC website² has a superannuation calculator to help you check out different fee options.

How super is taxed

Christian Super will pay the tax applying to your account directly to the Australian Tax Office and deduct this tax from your account balance. Before-tax contributions into your super (including compulsory employer contributions) are generally taxed at 15%, this can be higher if you are considered a 'higher income earner' for contribution purposes. Contributions into your super made from your after-tax savings are not taxed. Withdrawals from your account may be taxed if you are aged less than 60. Once you turn 60, generally no tax will apply to withdrawals. Investment earnings are generally taxed at 15%.

The above tax rules apply except if you exceed the before or after-tax contribution limits. If you exceed the contribution limits for super you will pay extra tax. The contribution limits for each financial year can be found on the ATO website.

 Warning: You should provide your Tax File Number (TFN) as part of acquiring the superannuation product. If you don't tell us your TFN, you may pay extra tax on your contributions or when you later access your benefit, or not be able to make some types of contributions. It will also be more difficult to trace different super amounts in your name, which means that you may not locate and receive all your super benefits when you retire.

“ ... delivering not only a great ethical super fund, but also retaining a sharp focus on delivering a prudent and sound investment approach for members. ”

Simon O'Connor CEO, Responsible Investment
Association Australasia (RIAA)

Insurance in your super

You may apply for Death, Total and Permanent Disability (TPD), and Income Protection insurance when you join the Fund. Costs are associated with the cover you choose, and premiums are deducted directly from your super account. These are calculated based on your occupational group, age and level of cover.

Eligible new members will receive Death and TPD cover in accordance with the following table, based on your age and account balance.

Death and TPD	Under 25 years	25 years and over
Account Balance Under $6,000	No cover	No cover
Account Balance Over $6,000	No cover	3 units

Your level of Death and TPD cover will automatically change in accordance with the table once you reach 25 years of age and/or have an account balance over $6,000.

Eligible new members will receive Income Protection cover in accordance with the following table, based on your age and account balance.

Income Protection	Under 25 years	25 years and over
Account Balance Under $6,000	No cover	No cover
Account Balance Over $6,000	No cover	At least 6 units

The number of units of Income Protection insurance that you receive is based on your Occupational Group, and may be up to 18 units. If no Occupational Group is advised, you will receive 6 units of cover. Premiums for automatic cover depend on your age, gender and Occupational Group.

You may apply for default cover even if you don't meet the age and account balance criteria, or apply for more cover online after reading the Insurance Guide. You may need to show evidence of your good health before the Insurer agrees to provide this extra cover.

 Important: Insurance premiums for the default cover will be deducted from your account. If you wish to decline or cancel your default insurance cover, please notify Christian Super.

You can cancel, decline or opt-in for automatic cover by notifying Christian Super via your online MemberAccess account, in writing, over the phone, or alter your insurance cover using the Insurance Application form. If you make an insurance claim, The Fund and the insurer will determine whether you are entitled to be paid based on the terms of the policy, the Fund's rules and the law.

 You should read the important information about eligibility for, cancellation of, and any conditions or exclusions of Christian Super's insurance cover before making a decision. These matters may affect your entitlement to insurance cover and should be read before deciding whether insurance is appropriate. The Insurance Guide is available on our website⁵.
